

El Formosa - Taiwan Scenery Project Part 2

1. Introduction

Chi Mei (RCCM) and Wang An (RCWA) scenery is the Part2 we'd like to present to everybody after releasing Part1. Chi Mei and Wang An are part of Peng Hu archipelago which are famous for its natural resources and beautiful scene. Wang An is also well known as a habitat of Green Turtle. Though only few daily scheduled flights to both islands, air traffic is still very important to local residents and tourists. Microsoft FS2004 does have RCWA, but never includes RCCM, and thus, we improve both airports by Gmax to give FS fan better flight experience in this area. If you like small size airport, you will never disappoint this airport scenery.

This scenery requires installation of Part1. Please download it from AVSIM. (File name is el_formosa_part1.zip)

4. Tour Guide

RCCM and RCWA are VFR only airports. Most of the commercial flights takeoff from Kaohsiung International Airport (RCKH) or Makung Airport (RCQC). Airlines use such small size commuter as Do228 for these routes. Flight time, usually, takes less than one hour from RCKH to these two airports. Just circling over these islands, enjoy blue sea, sweet breeze, and sunshine!
